

In this Issue:

Editorial

Recent seminars

Draft Discussion Document towards a Green Paper on Correctional Services in South Africa

Reintegration in South African Corrections

Editorial

The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development (International Affairs section) has referred to the various State Law Advisors, as well as the Department of Correctional Services, South African Police Services (SAPS) and the South African Defence Force (SANDF). Comments from the respective Departments are expected around the 21 November 2003. On receipt of these comments, a memorandum will be prepared for the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development. If his response is positive, a Cabinet memorandum will be prepared.

TOP

Recent seminars

31 July 2003

by Prof Julia Sloth-Nielsen

Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture: Implications for South Africa By Prof Lovell Fernanadez 17th September 2003, Cape Town Process and current status of the Optional Protocol in South Africa

The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development (International Affairs section) has referred to the various State Law Advisors, as well as the Department of Correctional Services, South African Police Services (SAPS) and the South African Defence Force (SANDF). Comments from the respective Departments are expected around the 21 November 2003. On receipt of these comments, a memorandum will be prepared for the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development. If his response is positive, a Cabinet memorandum will be prepared.

It should be noted that the process is a rather protracted one which will possibly take some months before any finality. CSPRI, will however will monitor the development of the Protocol.

Overview of Policy Developments in South African Correctional Services 1994 – 2002 By Prof Julia Sloth-Nielsen, Cape Town

TOP

Draft Discussion Document towards a Green Paper on Correctional Services in South Africa

The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development (International Affairs section) has referred to the various State Law Advisors, as well as the Department of Correctional Services, South African Police Services (SAPS) and the South African Defence Force (SANDF). Comments from the respective Departments are expected around the 21 November 2003. On receipt of these comments, a memorandum will be prepared for the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development. If his response is positive, a Cabinet memorandum will be prepared.

TOP

Reintegration in South African Corrections

(what does reintegration mean?) The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development (International Affairs section) has referred to the various State Law Advisors, as well as the Department of Correctional Services, South African Police Services (SAPS) and the South African Defence Force (SANDF). Comments from the respective Departments are expected around the 21 November 2003. On receipt of these comments, a memorandum will be prepared for the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development. If his response is positive, a Cabinet memorandum will be prepared.

TOP

Subscribe Unsubscribe Change Details Visit our website

CSPRI welcomes your suggestions or comments for future topics on the email newsletter.
Tel: (+27) 021-462 0017 / Fax: (+27) 021-462 2447
www.nicro.org.za/cspr

© Copyright 2004 CSPRI. All Rights Reserved.
Newsletter by FLATSPIN WEB SOLUTIONS

